Reverse: Blank. Stamped: "STG" at the foot. Engraved with girl's name. This medal: "Dorcas".

Notes: St. Anne's Diocesan College is a school for girls. It was founded in 1877 and was housed in 'The Manse', Pietermaritzburg. In 1904 the School moved to its present location in Hilton. The author of the website lives in Hilton.

Presumably, these medals were named and presented to each girl as part of the centenary celebrations. There is a reference to Dorcas Pugsley, a pupil at the school in 1980.
