Great Britain: Boer War: American Hospital Ship Maine Badge

Great Britain: Boer War: American Hospital Ship Maine Badge

Form: Circular. Uniface. Pin back. By: H. Lewis & Company, Mount Street, London Date: 1900 Ref: Laidlaw: 0577; Variations: Size Metal Mass Value

331.mm Gilded & Enamelled Bronze 14.6 gm $220

Edge: Plain.

Obverse: The emblem of the AHS Maine. Highlighted with red, while, blue and dark blue enamel, crossed standards of the United (left) and British Union (right) flags. In the angle above, starboard broadside view of steamship at sea. In the middle acr ribbon: "MAINE". In the angle below, the Red Cross shield. Legend on a lifebelt round the edge, above: "AMERICAN HOSPITAL SHIP FOR" and below: "SOUTH AFRICA".

Reverse: Blank with brooch pin. Stamped: "H.LEWIS / MOUNT ST. W"

Notes: The AHS Maine was an American ship lent to the British government by Bernard N. Baker, president of the Atlantic Tra for use as a hospital ship during the Boer war.

It is believed that this badge was used my the medical staff on board.