

Cape Colony: National Rifle Association Inter Colonial Grand Challenge Shield

Cape Colony: National Rifle Association Inter Colonial Grand Challenge Shield

Form: Shield-shaped die-pressed metal sheet. Five mounting holes.

By: Mappin & Webb

Date: 1902-1910

Ref: Laidlaw: 1017;

Variations:	Size	Metal	Mass	Value
	106 mm x 81 mm	Darkened White Metal	20.1 gm	$25

Edge: Plain.

Obverse: Ornatly decorated with edge following design. At top six flags divided by King's crown. On a ribbon below: "CAPE COLONY NATIONAL RIFLE ASSOCIATION". Below that, the Cape Colony coat of arms with female herald supporters. To the left a Zulu shield and spears above crossed rifles. Further down, within an oval wreath, a shooting range scene. At the bottom a cartouche: "INTER COLONIAL / GRAND / CHALLENGE SHIELD".

Reverse: Reverse impression

Notes: Intended for mounting on a wooden back. Also found in hallmarked silver and copper.